U.S. Century Bank Announces Hurricane Relief Effort

MIAMI, Sept. 6, 2005 – U.S. Century Bank today announced that it has opened an account called “U.S. Century Bank Supports Gulf States” and will make an initial donation of $25,000 to the account to aid victims of Hurricane Katrina. All funds will be donated to the American Red Cross.

In addition, the bank has designated its 10 branches as contribution centers where customers and non-customers can make donations to the account.

U.S. Century Bank President Octavio Hernandez said that it is important for everyone to help the thousands of families in need.

“We have been very blessed in our community, as well as with the success of our bank,” Hernandez said. “I feel that we have an obligation to help those who are in such dire need.”

Customers can make donations at any of the following branches:

- 7575 W. Flagler St., Miami, (305) 260-9400
- 13780 Coral Way, Miami, (305) 228 -9070
