U.S. Century Bank CFO Rob Anderson Honored at South Florida Business Journal CFO Awards

MIAMI — January 30, 2026 — U.S. Century Bank today announced that Rob Anderson, executive vice president and chief financial officer, was recognized as a CFO Awards honoree by the South Florida Business Journal at the 2026 CFO Awards program held yesterday.

The South Florida Business Journal CFO Awards honor financial leaders in the region who have demonstrated strategic leadership, financial acumen and measurable impact on their organizations. Anderson was recognized among a distinguished group of CFO honorees for his professional accomplishments and contributions to the bank.

“We are proud of Rob’s recognition by the South Florida Business Journal,” said Luis “Lou” de la Aguilera, chairman, president and CEO of U.S. Century Bank. “His financial leadership, commitment to excellence and dedication to our mission continue to drive strong results and help advance our bank’s strategic priorities.”

As CFO, Anderson oversees the bank’s financial operations, including accounting, financial planning and analysis, treasury management and regulatory reporting. His efforts have supported enhanced financial strength and operational efficiency as the bank continues to grow.

“I’m honored to have been recognized among such a distinguished group of talented individuals. As part of U.S. Century’s executive team, I’m proud of the work we do to remain relationship-driven, prioritizing stability and depth of client relationships over rate competition,” said Anderson.
