U.S. Century Bank Named to Prestigious Industry List

Hovde Group's High Performers: Class of 2025 - Small Cap Banks Worthy of Recognition

MIAMI — April 16, 2025 — U.S. Century Bank was named to Hovde Group's High Performers: Class of 2025, an outstanding group of small-cap banks in the U.S. that deliver significantly above-average results compared to the broader industry for the first time. A leading U.S. financial advisory group, Hovde Group has been a leading specialist in the banking sector for over 35 year and provides a full-service suite of investment banking, capital markets, and financial advisory services focused exclusively on the banking and thrift industry.

“We are honored to be recognized for exceptional financial results in 2024,” stated Luis de la Aguilera, chairman, president and CEO of U.S. Century Bank. “It underscores our executive team’s leadership as well as our risk management and strategic capital allocation in driving high performance.”

Hovde Group used a weighted average scoring mechanism considering pretax, pre-provision revenue (PPNR), overall operating efficiency, loan and deposit growth, and year-over-year TBVPS growth. To be included, companies needed to have a market cap between $100 million and $1.5 billion at the end of 2024 and operate with above-average banking fundamentals.
