

U.S. CENTURY BANK ANNOUNCES NEW EXECUTIVE TO HEAD COMMERCIAL BANKING DIVISION

South Florida Banking veteran, Nic Bustle, takes leadership position

MIAMI — May 31, 2019 — U.S. Century Bank (USCB) announced the addition of Nicholas “Nic” Bustle as executive vice president, chief lending officer. He will provide leadership for the commercial banking division, focusing on business development and market share growth in the commercial and industrial (C&I), commercial real estate, and small business market segments. He will oversee the team of commercial lenders in Miami-Dade and Broward counties.

“We continue to strengthen our presence in the commercial banking sector, and Nic is the right person to lead the effort to move us to the next level,” commented Luis de la Aguilera, president and CEO. “Economic conditions and market dynamics offer tremendous growth potential, and we plan to make the most of these opportunities.”

Bustle brings to U.S. Century Bank more than 35 years of South Florida banking experience, including leadership positions at City National Bank, BankUnited, and SunTrust Bank. In addition to specializing in commercial banking, his career spans positions in wealth management. He holds Series 24, 7, 66 and Insurance 215 licenses.

“At U.S. Century Bank, we are committed to not only servicing the needs of privately-owned businesses, but also the needs of these business owners and their families,” commented de la Aguilera. “Nic’s experience and perspectives will be valuable as we build out our plans to execute this important business priority.”

“I am proud to be part of a community bank that does as much to serve its community as it does to service its customers,” said Nic Bustle, the newly appointed executive vice president, chief lending officer. “I look forward to contributing to the growth and financial strength of U.S. Century Bank.”

Bustle holds a master’s degree in international business from Florida International University and a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the University of Wisconsin-Platteville.
